VOL. XXVIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1899, 10 A. M.

NO. 25

VETERANS OF THE PRESS.

The editors of the Kentuckian Citizen have been long in the service. Col. John G. Craddock and F. L. McChesney were journalists more than 40 years ago, the former then writing in the City of Mexico in 1848. Their experience as newspaper men will certainly be no drawback to them.

An editor is not made in a day. Careful study, long experience, thorough training and some ability, are all essential. Some of the leading writers of the day are veteran editors. Murat Halstead at more than 70, is still very actively at work, and probably more influential as a journalist than at any period in his life. Walter N. Haldeman, now in his 58th year, the Nestor of the Kentucky press, seems to have renewed his strength, as the eagle's, is always at his post, and doing an amount of work which many younger men would be incapable of doing. Henry Watterson, after 40 years' service, is as vigorous and brilliant a writer as he ever has been. W. C. P. Breckinridge was an editor more than 30 years ago, and his brilliant editorials today show that age and experience and study have added to the force and effectiveness of his writings. J. Stoddard Johnston is still a frequent contributor to the press and displays the same culture and ability that marked his writings 30 years ago. R. T. Darret more than 10 years ago was editor of the Louisville Courier. His writings at this time are the best work of his life. Today he is doing more unselfish labor than any man in the State to preserve in permanent form the history of the pioneers who laid the foundation of this grand old Commonwealth. John A. Bell has an editorial career of 43 years and is still working vigorously and successfully in the harness. George Rosser is also an editor of more than 30 years' service and is still in the vigor and strength of manhood. Robert McKee, ex-Harbor, 40 years ago a leading editor in Kentucky, is today a prominent and influential editor in Montgomery, Ala. Sam Williams, who commenced his career in this office nearly 40 years ago, is a brilliant and successful journalist in St. Louis.

John W. Hite, for 34 years a type and editor, composing as he sets, still has his position on the Kentuckian Citizen.

H. H. Gratz still edits the Lexington Gazette, with which he has been identified so long, and still writes with his accustomed ability.

Thomas M. Green, long prominently connected with the press of the State, retired some years ago, and is now in the revenue service.

John C. Noble and A. J. Morey, after nearly half a century of labor, have retired from the active duties of journalism, and in their old age, upon their farms are enjoying peace and dignity.

Green Keller, L. E. Casey, Pat McDonald, George A. Lewis, J. H. Hopper, Emmett Logan, W. P. Walton and Urey Woodson are veteran newspaper men, but belong to a younger class of journalists than those already mentioned.

Here's to the veterans of the press. Of them it may be truly said: "There's life in the old men yet." —Col. J. G. Craddock in the Paris Kentuckian, who says he is going to Europe and leave the paper in charge of Mr. McChesney, mentioned above.

MT. VERNON.

Judge Morrow called court promptly last Monday.

The W. C. T. U. held a very pleasant meeting with Miss Kate Moore Sunday.

A coal vein 5 feet thick was discovered on Brush creek by Madison county parties.

The telephone line from Crab Orchard to Beechick and Woodstock will soon be completed.

Papers of incorporation for the London, Livingston and Manchester telephone line have been filed.

A two-year-old child of John Davis, near Wilder, choked to death on a bean while his mother was gardening.

Fred Kreuger went to Hydey Thursday to put in a bid on the new courthouse. Editor Maret very seriously injured his back while lifting iron pipe at Livingston. Dr. S. C. Davis has improved the front of his residence. Bob Ping and Egbert Fisch have returned from Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott are in Danville. W. A. Morrow is at the Miller House. Judge Sharp is here. Mr. Stapp has sold his property and will go to Louisville. Stephen Brewitt was cleared of the charge of incendiarism. Miss Ruth Reppert is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Adams.

COUNTED 25 YEARS.

I suffered 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. This remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life.—J. B. Rossell, Graingerburg, Ill.

Soldier and Sailor Intelligence.

Havana is making elaborate preparations for its first decoration day celebration.

San Francisco is raising a $100,000 fund for a monument to the sailors of the American navy.

The war department has in its possession about 140 pieces of artillery captured in the late war, all from Cuba and Porto Rico.

Gens. MacArthur and Funston dispersed 800 insurgents beyond San Fernando, inflicting heavy loss. Funston led a gallant charge at the double-quick.

Gen. Lawton has arrived at Malolos after a brilliant march of over 120 miles, marked by 22 fights, in which he killed 400 insurgents, wounded 800 and lost only six men killed and 31 wounded.

Admiral Dewey has reached Hong Kong on the Olympia. He paid and received the formal calls enjoined by international etiquette, but is to ill to attend the queen's birthday dinner.

Gen. Corbin gives the number of deaths which have occurred in the army since the beginning of the war with Spain: In Cuba, 1,399; in Porto Rico, 287; at Honolulu, 45; in the Philippines, 600; in the United States, 3,872 total, 6,200.

The transport Sherman has sailed for the Philippines bearing 1,800 men, the largest number of soldiers to leave San Francisco on a single transport, and 75 officers, among them Gen. Bates. The entire 6th Infantry made up the greater part of the Sherman's human cargo.

The subscriptions for the Dewey home fund so far received by the National committee amount to $3,709. Among those received Tuesday was one of $100 from Vice President Hobart. As great men as Dewey have declined to be the beneficiary of such gifts.

Maj. J. C. Bryant and the 3rd Kentucky regiment are preparing to issue an illustrated book, giving the history of their experience and service in the Spanish-American war. Mrs. Eugenia Dunlap Potts, of Lexington, has been requested to take charge of the editing of the book.

Joseph H. Browning, of Louisville, was elected department commander of the G. A. R. in encampment at Glasgow and Dr. F. J. Taylor, of the latter place, vice commander. The old ex-Confederates did everything to make it pleasant for their former foes, and the grand army men declare they were never better treated anywhere, and are greatly pleased with the reception given them.

Thomas M. Green, long prominently connected with the press of the State, retired some years ago, and is now in the revenue service.

John C. Noble and A. J. Morey, after nearly half a century of labor, have retired from the active duties of journalism, and in their old age, upon their farms are enjoying peace and dignity.

Green Keller, L. E. Casey, Pat McDonald, George A. Lewis, J. H. Hopper, Emmett Logan, W. P. Walton and Urey Woodson are veteran newspaper men, but belong to a younger class of journalists than those already mentioned.

Here's to the veterans of the press. Of them it may be truly said: "There's life in the old men yet." —Col. J. G. Craddock in the Paris Kentuckian, who says he is going to Europe and leave the paper in charge of Mr. McChesney, mentioned above.

BURIED THE GRAVE

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Officer, of Hindlehurst, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition when I was admitted yellow eyes, sunken, tongue swollen, pulse 120, and I had to be supported gradually getting weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend obtained Dr. Elmer Bixler, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided change. I continued to improve day by day, and am now in full strength again. They say they saved my life, and added the grace of another claim." No one should fail to try them. Only 5cts. guaranteed at Penny's Drug Store.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

Rev. Robert Ryland during his ministry baptized 3,800 converts.

Atlanta was chosen for the meeting of the Southern Presbytery next year. Bishop H. C. Morrison will dedicate the new Methodist church at Owenton on June 15.

John Hallam, of St. Louis, was stricken with paralysis while praying in church and will die.

We have not yet heard of additions to churches as a result of the Sam Jones' meetings.—Baptist Recorder.

Owing to repairs in progress at our church, I will preach at the courthouse Sunday morning. No service at night. F. W. Allen.

A Louisville paper says that Sam Jones added $2,000 to his bank account by his meetings there but neglects to say how many souls he saved.

The German Baptists in session at Roanoke, Va., adopted resolutions barring neckties, instrumental music and tobacco raisers from membership.

Some millionaires with money to burn and a fondness for the smell of smoke, are building a $200,000 church in New York for the Christian scientists.

In the opinion of the Presbyterian General Assembly, it is best to postpone union between the Northern and Southwestern branches of the church to some more convenient day, while day, it may be added, will never come.

To Sunday School for eight weeks or to jail was the alternative given a boy by an Ohio judge for a misdemeanor. At the end of that time if he doesn't present a certificate from his teacher that he has attended he will go to jail any how.

The entertainment of the Southern Baptist convention delegates cost about $5,000. A well-informed gentleman estimates that the 5,000 delegates and visitors spent on an average of $12 each, a total of $60,000. Since the "pay plan" has been adopted, Baltimore and several other cities will contend for the convention at its next session.

Elder E. G. Sweeney, aged 92, and a noted minister of the Christian church, died at Paris. He was the father of Elders John S. Sweeney, of Paris, Z. T. Sweeney, of Columbus, Ind., Geo. Sweeney, of Oakland, Cal., and William Sweeney, deceased, all of the Christian church. He was born in Casey county, where he lived for many years.

A steamboat on the river Jordan. Who would have thought it? The Abbot Pachomius of the Greek monastery at Jericho has got a little steamboat on the Jordan, which plies from the traditional place of Christ's baptism to the lower end of the Dead Sea, and is liberally patronized by tourists and pilgrims. It gives a fine and comfortable opportunity to see the wonders of the Dead Sea.—Western Recorder.

On the night of the 30th inst., Rev. J. M. Matsumoto will deliver a lecture at the Hubbell Methodist church in the Walnut Flat neighborhood on "Japan." He is a native of that country and is in our land securing an education to return to his people as a missionary. He graduated at Asbury College last year and is now taking a course at Vanderbilt. He is deserving of your encouragement and help. No admittance fee will be charged, but voluntary contributions from the congregation will be appreciated. We would like to see a representation from Stanford. E. T. Raney.

Hughes, of the Louisville Commercial, will be here with relatives next Sunday. Capt. S. M. Duncan, Lt. Claude Wherritt and Maj. Wm. Collier have been invited to address the colored wing of the G. A. R. on the 30th.

J. R. Ryan has contracted with Dr. J. H. Osbey to build four handsome, two-story, brick business houses, forming a block on the East side of Public Square. There are to be no outside stairways and a fire wall is to be between each room. I understand that R. E. McRoberts will occupy the room near the National Bank and H. M. Ballou the room on the corner, adjoining Richmond Avenue. More buildings will go up in Lancaster this year than during the last 10 years.

Could not express the capture of Annie E. Springer of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden to her. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the land. All who are suffering from the King's New Discovery for any trouble in the head, Chest or Lungs, Price 50c and $1.00. The funny genius of the Albany, N. Y., Argus after reading Rudyard Kipling's latest masterly effort in rhyme entitled "The White Man's Burden," oiled up the machinery of his think tank and ground out this pretty pat little dab of delirious doggerel: "Cold is the night—tis 2 A. M.—when baby screams and cries; take up the white man's burden, thee, and walk—for exercise."

The INTERIOR JOURNAL threatens the Louisville Times with a libel suit on account of a villainous cartoon of its editor. Any court in the land will sustain the INTERIOR JOURNAL in such an action.—Loving Gaines' Progress.

Messrs. James Totten and J. B. Owens, of your city, are canvassing our county for the sale of their harvesting machines. T. M. Goodknight was here Monday working in the interest of Prof. J. T. Gaines, who is a candidate for superintendent of public instruction.

A large crowd attended commencement exercises on Wednesday and the productions of the graduates evinced a high degree of culture, for which all praise is due Prof. J. H. Patterson and his able corps of teachers. Mr. W. L. Williams presented the diplomas and delivered an able address, full of good advice and valuable information.

Hardly an average crowd attended county court last Monday, and the principal business was talking politics. G. A. Swinebroad reports 200 cattle on the market. He sold 16 top steers at $20 and 20 helpers at $21.50. Stock steers brought 5 to 6c; stock cows 3 to 4c; butcher stuff 3c and lambs 5c for June and July delivery.

Things are still going our way. Capt. Wm. Herndon sent Capt. Louis Landrum a telegram from Glasgow, stating that the G. A. R. will meet in Lancaster in 1900. Being a central point several hundred will be in attendance, the catch string will be on the outside, the fat calf will be killed and everything desirable to the taste or pleasure to the ear will be tendered to the noble old veterans.

On the night of the 30th inst., Rev. J. M. Matsumoto will deliver a lecture at the Hubbell Methodist church in the Walnut Flat neighborhood on "Japan." ## THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - MAY 26, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

THEIR is an effort by some of the democratic leaders to side track the money question for anti-trust and anti-imperialistic planks, but there is hardly a possibility of its succeeding. The National committee is in session at St. Louis, formulating plans for 1900.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Hon. Wm. Jennings Bryan will speak at Glasgow, May 31.

G. Alfon Holland, a Blackburn man, was nominated for the Legislature in Henry.

H. W. Rives, of Lebanon, has had Editor Sommers, of the Elizabethtown News, arrested for criminal libel in connection with the Sommers-Graves bribery case.

The Philippines customs receipts for four months to April 30 amounted to $1,701,600. In Cuba for four months they were $1,443,999; Porto Rican, same period, $181,128.

The Advocate says public sentiment is so evenly divided in Boyle it is hard to tell who has the majority for governor, though Goebel has a great deal larger following than some credit him with.

Our circuit judges and Commonwealth's attorneys will soon be putting in a plea for increase of salary, upon the ground that they are working over time in securing the pardon of the criminals whom they succeed in convicting.—Louisville Times.

Miss Mamie Sasseen, of Henderson, who is a candidate for superintendent of public instruction, lays claims to the support of the democrats of Kentucky on the grounds that she is the only woman in the State, married or unmarried, who is past 30 years of age.

In all Senator Goebel's career as a legislator, every vote cast by him rings clear as a bell on the side of the people. Without a single exception, he has stood with them in victory, or gone down with them in defeat. It is such a man as this, such a champion as this, that they are now asked to crush.—Glasgow Times.

Harry Weissinger, who was prominent among the sound money democrats in 1896, will introduce Mr. Bryan at the auditorium during the meeting of the Ohio Valley Bimetallic League. He believes that the trust question will be the vital issue in the next campaign and that Mr. Bryan is the man to lead the anti-trust fight.

Ex. Gov. Norton, of Georgia, made a speech in Boston that seems to have stirred up the monkeys. He deplored the lynchings in his State and said: "Negro politics, in my judgment, as taught during reconstruction and continued to the present day, are responsible for most of the blood that has been spilled, the outrages that have been perpetrated and the sorrows that have come to the whites and the Negroes of the South. The course of the Northern press is responsible for much of the remainder. The South is a white man's country, and it will never be delivered over to Negroes, whatever the power and influence brought to bear to force this fearful end."

This from a speech of Candidate Hardin is the superlative of egotism:

"The people are for me, not for me personally, but for the cause which I represent. Their interest in my success is even greater than my own. I know that my defeat, no matter what means accomplished, and no matter who was nominated, would be regarded the world over as an abandonment of the cause I represented four years ago, and that the day I fall it would be heralded the world around that my cause fell with me."

Swift & Co. say "we could afford to accept the by-product without the meat and still be able to command a handsome profit." The proof of this statement is interesting. A good steer it is estimated, will cost a farmer $20 to raise before he sells it. For the sake of illustration, it may be said that the packer pays him $35 for the animal, which makes his profit $15, and the investment of the packer $35. An estimate places the subsequent disposal of the steer by the packer as follows:

From the meat and compounds of meat, $10; from the hide, hair, horns and hoofs, $25; from the fats, blood, sinews and bones, $15; from all other waste, $15, or $45 received from the by-products, and $20 from the meat, a total of $65 on an investment of $35, or a gross profit of $30, from which are to be deducted all the charges for freight, agents, plant, offices etc., leaving the packer's net profit somewhere in the neighborhood, it is said, of $10. As from the gross profit of $30, he is estimated to disburse $20 for wages, it can readily be seen what the elimination of the by-product would mean to thousands now employed through his agency."

It is proposed to bring home from Cuba, for burial in their native land, the remains of the victims in the famous Virginia affair, where the captain, a crew of 36 and 16 others were captured on the American ship Virginian in November of 1873, near Santiago, placed in line, and shot to death under color of military condemnation. The brutal murder of these men was one of the worst crimes in the world's history, and Spain's fall to ruin, degradation and bankruptcy is but a just judgment. Senator Money, of Mississippi, has introduced a bill in congress providing for the bringing home of the remains and for their proper burial in this country, and the bill should pass.

It has been frequently stated that the Prince of Wales never loses his temper, although he must frequently feel angry. One day a young lord, who was an ardent republican, said to him: "Sir, have you ever thought of the possibility of Great Britain becoming a republic, and your losing both title and income?" "Yes, I have," answered the prince. "And have you thought what you would do?" persisted the young lord. "Why, yes," said the prince, with perfect good nature. "There would always be a chance to lecture in America." The prince would prove a "puller" over here, sure enough.

When the new curfew ordinance went into effect at Vineland, N. J., a few nights ago the result was that everyone, old and young, turned out to see the fun. A burlesque parade was got up in which the mayor, councilmen and the president of the Wongan's Christian Temperance union were represented by ludicrous dummies. Boys broke into the high school and tolled the bell, and opened defiance was given to the local police, so great is the opposition to the curfew.

The dimensions of this Jumbo of amphitheatres will be 1,200 feet long by 700 feet wide, and its seating capacity will be an even 100,000. An immense arena will be erected, and games of every description known to athletics will be given. The arena will be in plain view of every seat.

HOUSE BURNED.—The residence on the old Levi Hobble farm near Shelby City, owned and occupied by George S. Shelby burned at noon yesterday with a good portion of its contents. TAYLOR.—A very large crowd enjoyed Gov. R. L. Taylor's lecture on "Love, Laughter and Song" last night and even those who came from Mt. Vernon, Danville, Liberty, Lancaster, Hustonville, McKinney and other distant places, felt that they were amply repaid for their time and outlay. The governor is a prince of entertainers and his new lecture is an improvement even on his other three excellent ones. It is a fine word painting of love, intermingled with song and laughter-provoking stories, many of them new and the old ones so well told that they appeared so. A new and good one was about an old preacher who had run out of money and provisions, when his members gladdened his heart by visiting him and presenting him with an abundance of both. The same day his wife presented him with a boy. Two men saw his delight over both events and one offered to bet that at the services the next Sunday he would mention the money first. The other took the bet, saying he was sure he would speak first of the new baby. Sunday came and the old man prayed, "Lord we thank Thee for this timely succor (sukker)" and the stakeholder decided the bet a draw. The men laughed and the women blushed, while the governor went on to advise against the sin of betting, even when it proves a draw. Hon. J. N. Saunders presented the speaker and did it handsomely. We are glad to know that Mr. M. F. Elkin and the promoters came out at the big end of the horn financially, while furnishing themselves and the public in a genuine treat.

MIDDLEBURG.

If the good Lord will only hold the rain back the rest of the week, Casey farmers will finish their corn planting. Farmers are later this spring than for years on account of the excessive wet weather.

Forty-three ladies and gentlemen, or would be pedagogues, took the county examination at Liberty Friday and Saturday and by the time this appears in print, many of them will doubtless be feeling down in their throat, and it is needless to say the writer will be one of the many.

The sooner the democratic State convention comes off, the better for Kentucky democracy. There is always a time to half when candidates of the same party can't make a clean, personal canvass for the gubernatorial nomination without getting into personal affairs. A few weeks ago Hardin would have carried Casey in a walk, but by the way the tide is turning, the Stone following will prove a powerful factor in the county convention unless present signs go for naught.

Next Tuesday is Decoration day and the date of the soldiers reunion at this place. Mention was made in last week's paper of the fact that everybody is invited, white, but not black, little and big, old and young, "Yankee" and "Johnny Reb." The speakers that have accepted the invitations extended to them from a distance are Congressman-elect Boreing, of London, Judge James Denton, of Somerset, and T. M. Goodknight, of Stanford, who is a survivor of the Lost Cause. Mrs. Goodknight, who is an accomplished elocutionist, will render a suitable poem. The writer has a letter from Judge R. J. Breckinridge accepting the kind invitation extended to him by the Casey G. A. R. He will be here if the health of his family will permit. And then of course there's an over abundance of home talent (?). There will be a large crowd in Middleburg that day and it will take something to feed the people, so let us appeal to you once more to display your Kentucky hospitality that day by aiding in feeding the crowd. Those at a distance are not expected and are not wanted to bring baskets.

DANVILLE.

Mrs. Margaret Leatherman, widow of George Leatherman, died this morning at 7 o'clock, of pneumonia, at the home of her nephew, William R. Scott.

Stuart R. Parks, son of Mr. W. H. Parks, of Perryville, and Miss Sarah L. Calvert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Calvert, of this county, were married today.

John W. Yerkes bought of H. H. Shearen his farm of 80 acres, on the Shakertown pike, for $4,650. The place adjoins the Yelser farm, also owned by Mr. Yerkes.

The E. P. Faulconer horse sale advertised to take place yesterday and today was declared off because many entries promised failed to materialize, although the prospects pointed to a fine attendance of buyers.

The residence of W. O. Alexander at the forks of the Hustonville pike burned, together with much of the household furniture, clothing, etc. The blaze is supposed to have started from coals falling out of the kitchen stove. The building was a frame cottage, partially insured.

A splendid Sunday School was recently organized at Willow Grove. The officers are: Will Sallee, superintendent; Will Waters, assistant superintendent; Phelps Cobb, secretary and treasurer. The school is growing so rapidly that at the first meeting after the organization plans were made to get more seats. Through the efforts of Will Waters the Sunday school now has an organ.—Advocate.

CRABORCHARD.

When crab trees there did blossom
'Twas then it gained its name
And as it slowly prospered
It slowly arose to fame.
The town though small and scattered
To leave it is very hard
When once you've had the pleasure
Of living in Crab Orchard.

With its springs which ever flowing
Bring people from afar
With the doors of its inhabitants
To strangers held ajar
And girls and boys intelligent
To greet you when you come,
The stranger while there staying
Is made to feel at home.

Crab Orchard of all places,
The home of those who love
The women of Kentucky
And God Whoreigns above.
Of course there are exceptions,
But these we will discard
And live in peace and happiness
At home in Crab Orchard.

—Composed by one of her boys.

THROBBING HEADACHE

Would quickly leave you, if used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and help up your health. Easy to take. Take them. Only Druggist.

Russia, with a population of 127,000,000, has only 18,334 physicians. In the United States, with a population of about 75,000,000, there are 120,000 physicians, showing that we are doctorated to the same proportion.

For a thorough understanding of the money question, or silver issue, the Cincinnati Enquirer has uniformly given evidence of its ability to teach, explain and produce all facts and truth. It is a paper that ought and can be read by all classes with pleasure and profit.

Will Stand at $10 to Insure a Living Colt.

Note.—Ogdensburg is an extremely handsome stallion with all the form, bushiness and style of his famous family. With the exception of Mambrino King he is undoubtedly the handsomest and most valuable stallion in America. He is a sure and very fine breeder and has a good record as regards his colts. He is a good and honest animal, one that can handle and drive him. He is bold and hardy and is capable of trotting much faster than his record. He has been used with him always and is an easy horse to get in condition. He has trotted miles in 2:22 and quarters in 32 seconds. All the training he ever had in his life would not amount to six months. He obtained his record when a four-year-old over a muddy track in New Albany. He has been harnessed to a light carriage and has trotted him three straight heats. He's very lively headed and afraid of nothing. He is a show horse as well as a trotter. Has been shown at some of the best fairs in Kentucky and Indiana and has won a number of premiums. He was a number one sweepstakes premium.

Will Also Stand a Good Jack at $8 to Insure a Living Colt.

GREENBACKS or Government Money.

At close of our Civil War in 1865, there appeared in the London Times the following:

"If that mischievous financial policy which had its origin in the North American Republic during the late Civil War in that country, should be come indurated down to a fixture, then that government will furnish its money without cost. It will have all the money that is necessary to carry on its trade and commerce. It will become prosperous beyond precedent in the history of civilized nations of the world. The brain and wealth of all countries will go to North America. THAT GOVERNMENT MUST BE DESTROYED OR IT WILL DESTROY EVERY MONARCHY ON THIS GLOBE."

The famous Hazard circular, to capitalists in New York, and the Buell Bank circular to United States Bankers, both emanating from London, and the fabulous corruption fund raised in England and Germany, estimated at $1,500,000, were the agents that secured the closing of our mints against silver.

The "walk into my parlor" policy of England, during and since the Spanish War, is the latest evidence of English Diplomacy in shaping the destiny of the United States Government.

Notwithstanding the famine price of wheat, the Spanish War, and the fabulous expenditures of money by our government during the past year, gold has increased in value eleven per cent, and all other values decreased in the same proportion.

The "walk into my parlor" policy of England, during and since the Spanish War, is the latest evidence of English Diplomacy in shaping the destiny of the United States Government.
